CAPITOL HILL HIGH SCHOOL

FOREWORD

Just as that summer tan begins to look good, the old world makes another turn and it's September again. Despite the inviting sunshine and green grass outside, almost two thousand southside teens trudge inside the big, brick building at 36th and South Walker streets. On the Tuesday following Labor Day this same scene is re-enacted year after year as new students and old come back to school.

There's no escaping it. It's as certain as death and taxes. But really, does anyone want to escape it? Aren't these the best years of our lives? There's so much to learn and so many things to do that three years hardly seems time enough. So, we cram in as many solids as the law allows, and plan as many activities as our teachers and parents allow. We are typical teens!

We came this year, just as students have been coming since 1929 when the school's doors were first opened. Yet, this year has been different from all others. It has been exclusively ours. It is the aim of the 1962 CHIEFTAIN to set down a brief history of this very special year belonging to those of us who CAME TO C.H.H.S.

KENNETH CARTER and Carol Hix ask the leader of the Limelighters to sign their program at the annual Junior Senior Prom.

CROWNING of Judy Reed as Band Queen was among the year's highlights for Hill musicians.

We Came Searching For Knowledge and Friendship

FINGERS OFTEN turn to thumbs as one takes the GATB aptitude tests given to seniors.

TERM PAPER time brings students from all classes to search for knowledge in the CHHS library.

LT. COLONEL Loren Perdue brings students and faculty up-to-date on missiles and defense devices.

You came to C.H.H.S. . . . You, the awed sophomore, entering for the first time; the hard-working junior filled with expectancy; the self-assured senior ready to take your place as a leader.

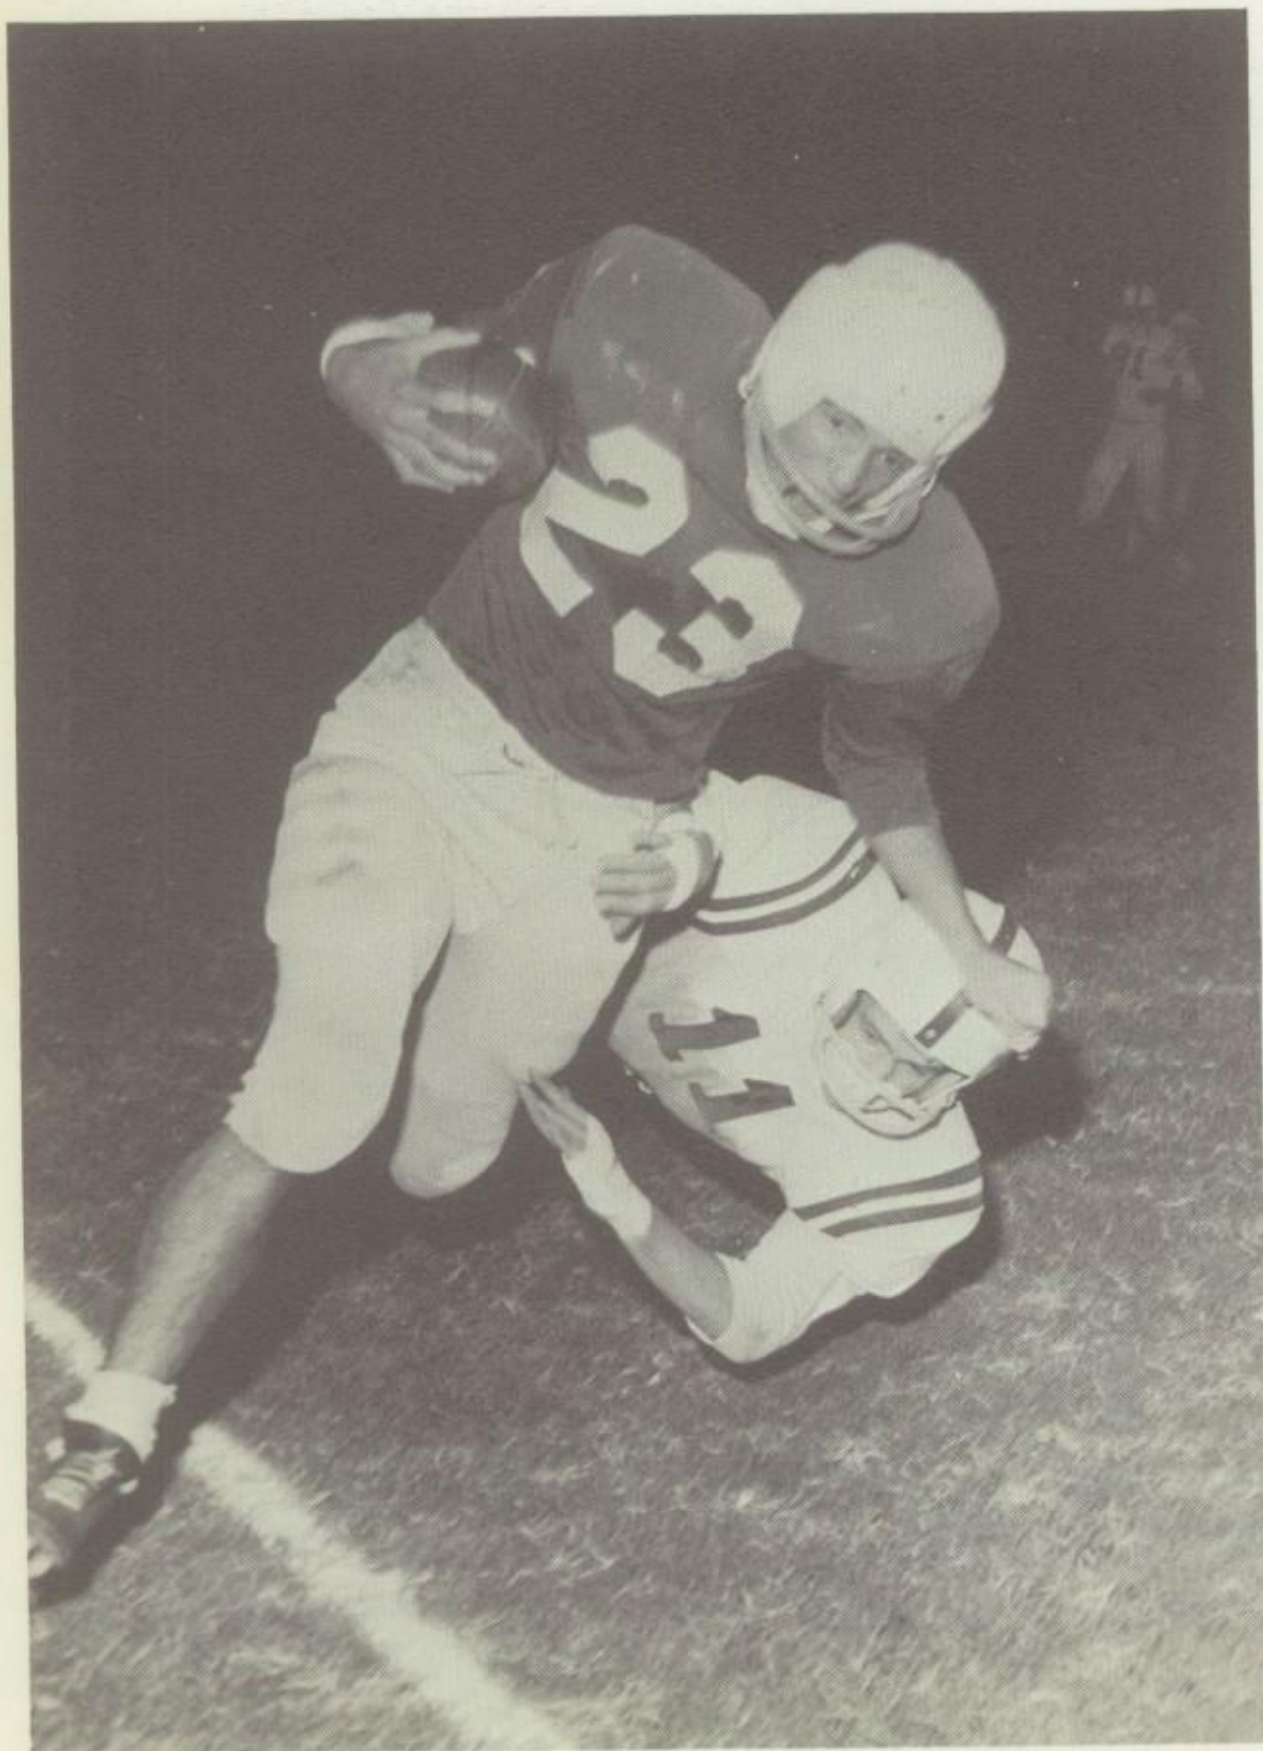

You came searching for knowledge. You found qualified instructors who tried to teach you not just facts but the method of reasoning it out for yourself.

You came searching for friendship and found it. Teachers as well as your fellow students became your friends. With some you shared a common interest; with others a moment of happiness or a disappointment. For whatever reason your friendship was formed, you'll always be glad that it was!

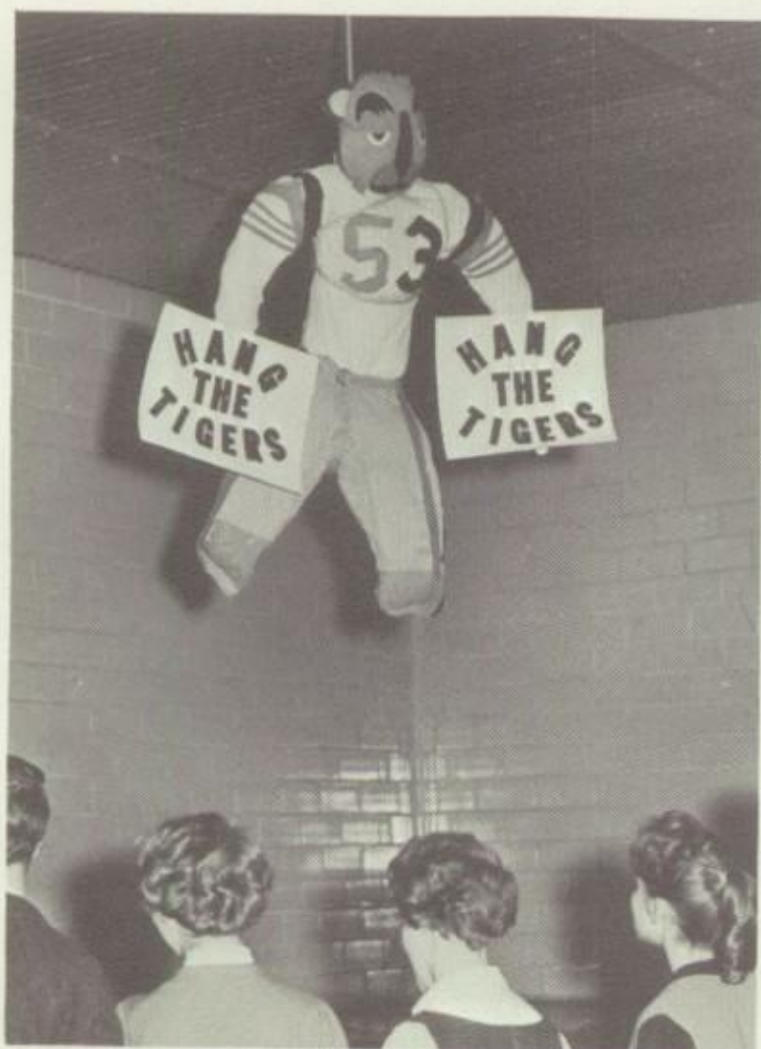

"WE WANT A touchdown!" was a cry familiar to spectators at CHHS football games.

HELPING TO CAPTURE the Mid-State Crown, halfback Mike Speegle charges downfield to score for the Redskins during their title tilt with Enid.

We Came Bursting With Youth and Enthusiasm

A HANGING TIGER was the center of interest in the cafeteria just before the state playoff.

You came to C.H.H.S. bursting with youth and enthusiasm . . . ready and determined to make this a better place because you were here.

This was the big year . . . the year of all-out school spirit! The football team made a turn-about after losing its first two games, and won eight in a row. This was the team that could do no wrong when they took the Mid-State Crown in the battle with Enid. And, this same team put up a great fight before losing to Norman in the state playoff game, 12-6.

It was a good year . . . and no matter which moments mean most to you, you came to C.H.H.S., and you're glad you came!

THE PRIDE of Capitol Hill displays the marching formation that has won them state-wide fame.

BONFIRES WERE very big on the Hill this fall, with one being sponsored before almost every game.

We Came To Pledge Ourselves to

Former President Eisenhower gave this warning in 1956: "Competition for men's minds begins when they are students . . . they must be taught to discriminate between the American form of government and the Soviet form. When they have all the facts, I am confident they will make the correct choice, as they have done for the past 181 years."

Because of the Communist threat, our youth must be deeply grounded in the backgrounds, traditions, and theories of our democracy. This year there has been a renewed vigor among Hill students in honoring the flag. We inaugurated flag-raising and lowering ceremonies and daily pledges of allegiance in homerooms.

We, the citizens of tomorrow, daily pledge our pride in our country, our love of her Flag, and our prayer for world peace.

Citizenship

SIX THOUSAND fans can be seated in the Redskin stadium which is the scene of all home games.

We Came To The School In The

CAPTURING THE HEARTS of hundreds of high school students, the main building of Capitol Hill has remained virtually unchanged since 1928.

ABANDONED IN 1960 by FFA members, the agriculture building is now occupied by other classes.

TRAINING FOR careers in various trades is offered in the vocational building.

Heart Of The Hill . . . This We Found

BUILT IN 1954, the ultra-modern field house is the site of all pep assemblies, indoor sports, and the baccalaureate.

Dedication:

She Came To Capitol Hill In 1937 . . .

The 1962 CHIEFTAIN is dedicated to an instructor who came to CHHS twenty-five years ago, and leaves with class of '62.

Thousands of girls have learned basic nutrition, food preparation, child guidance, home nursing, and home decoration from her during the last two and a half decades.

When she leaves this spring, she takes with her memories of years when she sponsored the Ki Yi Pep club. Chief among the out-of-state trips made in the 1940's was the chartered train trip to Mexico City which she sponsored.

Unusual classroom happenings will also be standouts in her memories. For example, there's the time that the wall cabinet crashed to the floor during a class . . . smashing china, crystal, and silver service, and leaving behind a very nervous teacher. Or perhaps she will remember the time, just this year, when half the coffee pot disappeared after a luncheon served to the principals. That mystery is still unsolved.

Probably her most heart-warming memories will be of those students whom she has prepared for places as home economists, homemakers, wives, and mothers. A knowledge of their happiness and success will be her reward for years dedicated to helping them.

If "work is love made visible" then surely Miss Blanche Smith has bestowed a great deal of love on her students in the last quarter of a century.

Miss Smith, as you leave the Hill, we want to join the ranks of those who say "We're glad you came to CHHS. Come back to see us often!"

TAKING the silver service from the cabinet is a part of the routine preceding every tea or reception given by the foods classes.

RESOURCE PERSONS are often invited to Miss Smith's classes to give demonstrations such as this one on flower arrangement by a local florist.

Striving to keep all phases of school life at Capitol Hill on a high level are Mr. C. B. Breithaupt, principal; Mr. Alonzo Roop, vice principal in charge of discipline; and Mr. L. V. Irwin, vice principal in charge of instruction.

Switching procedures of enrollment, and adopting the IBM method was handled by Mr. Irwin.

Keeping abreast with the times and in close contact with the student body, Mr. Roop realizes and fulfills his duties as "discipline maintainer." Returning '63 students will miss the guidance of an old friend as Mr. Roop retires at the close of this school term.

Believing that Capitol Hill can only progress, Mr. Breithaupt has recognized the need for good public relations, so vital in this time when American ideals and education are on world-wide trial.

Balancing grammar on one hand and Chaucer on the other is no easy task. But students learn both under the watchful eyes of English teachers.

After receiving the basic two years of required English in the tenth and eleventh grades, seniors may choose between business English and academic English.

Believing in the importance of breaking down the language barrier, faculty members of the language department strive to improve and maintain the department's high ideals. French, German, Spanish and Latin are the foreign languages offered.

Practice makes perfect and the girls of CHHS can fully assure you that they practice, practice, practice. Whether it be typing, calculating, or taking dictation, a skill is formed.

The Business Department teaches students to develop themselves for a future career in the business world of tomorrow. Shorthand, typing, bookkeeping, and business machines are only a few of the subjects a student has at her finger-tips.

It is a well-known fact that the businessmen of Oklahoma prefer Hill students because of their thorough training.

As the world grows more atomic minded, the professional field of math and science grows more in demand.

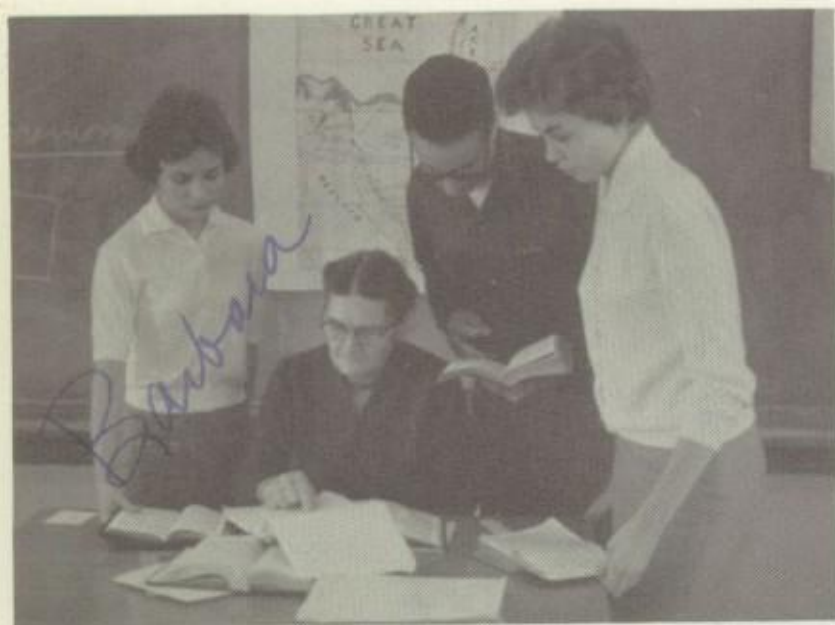

The men behind the rockets, missiles and satellites are trained mathematicians and scientists who have had many years of schooling during their lifetime.

Instructors of the Hill math and science classes are preparing students for these fields in both science and math classes.

All Redskin students are required to take at least one year of math. Classes range from business math to trigonometry.

At least one credit in science is required, also. Classes vary from biology to physics in the science department.

Who? What? When? Where? How? Why? These questions may sound like a beginning course in journalism, but when applied to the origin of our civilization they spell the goal of the Social Studies Department.

By spinning back time, students of World History learned about the rise and fall of nations on all parts of the globe.

American History helped students appreciate the value of liberties they often take for granted.

With more trophies and certificates of honor than trophy cases and walls will hold, the activity department is represented in almost every contest held in the state and in many national events.

Music festivals at nearby universities and colleges always rate the Hill band and choir at the top for both group and solo work.

Play production and forensic students are busy on many weekends during the year, matching abilities and wits against speech tournament competitors. A Hill student has been entered in the national contest for the past two years.

Newspaper and yearbook staffs also rate highly with collegiate, state, and national rating services which measure them against other publications from schools of like size.

Contests are far from the only interest of the groups. Their primary goal is to gain skill and knowledge and to provide entertainment and enlightenment to the student body through assemblies, plays, and the printed word.

"YOU KNOW BETTER than to cut school," exclaim mother and teachers, to Raymond Huston in the play production class.

Physical and mental growth are both given special attention in the Hill's physical education department.

Both indoor and outdoor sports are enjoyed. Such activities as badminton, volleyball, swimming, tennis, baseball, basketball, shuffleboard and table tennis are enjoyed by both the girls and boys.

Teaching students to respect and take care of their bodies was a fulltime job; but instructors also found the opportunity to stress the importance of good sportsmanship.

We Came Full Of Sparkle

● Campus Life

And Spirit

We Came To The Hill From All Directions

We came to CHHS . . . ready to accept the challenge of Senior High . . . ready to adapt ourselves to a new pattern of life.

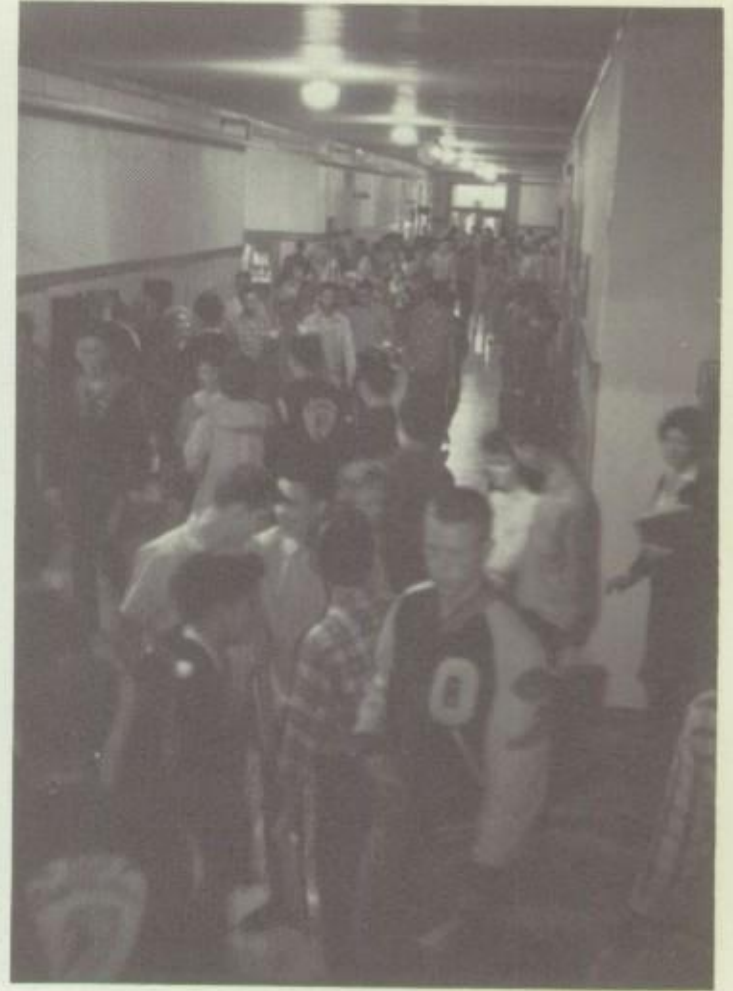

As new Hillmen, we carried the Red-skin name proudly. Our athletic teams were supported to the maximum; we accepted our wins, as well as our losses, with good sportsmanship.

We brought to the Hill the fun of fads. We met new people, and became the best of friends. We dated, laughed and enjoyed social activities together.

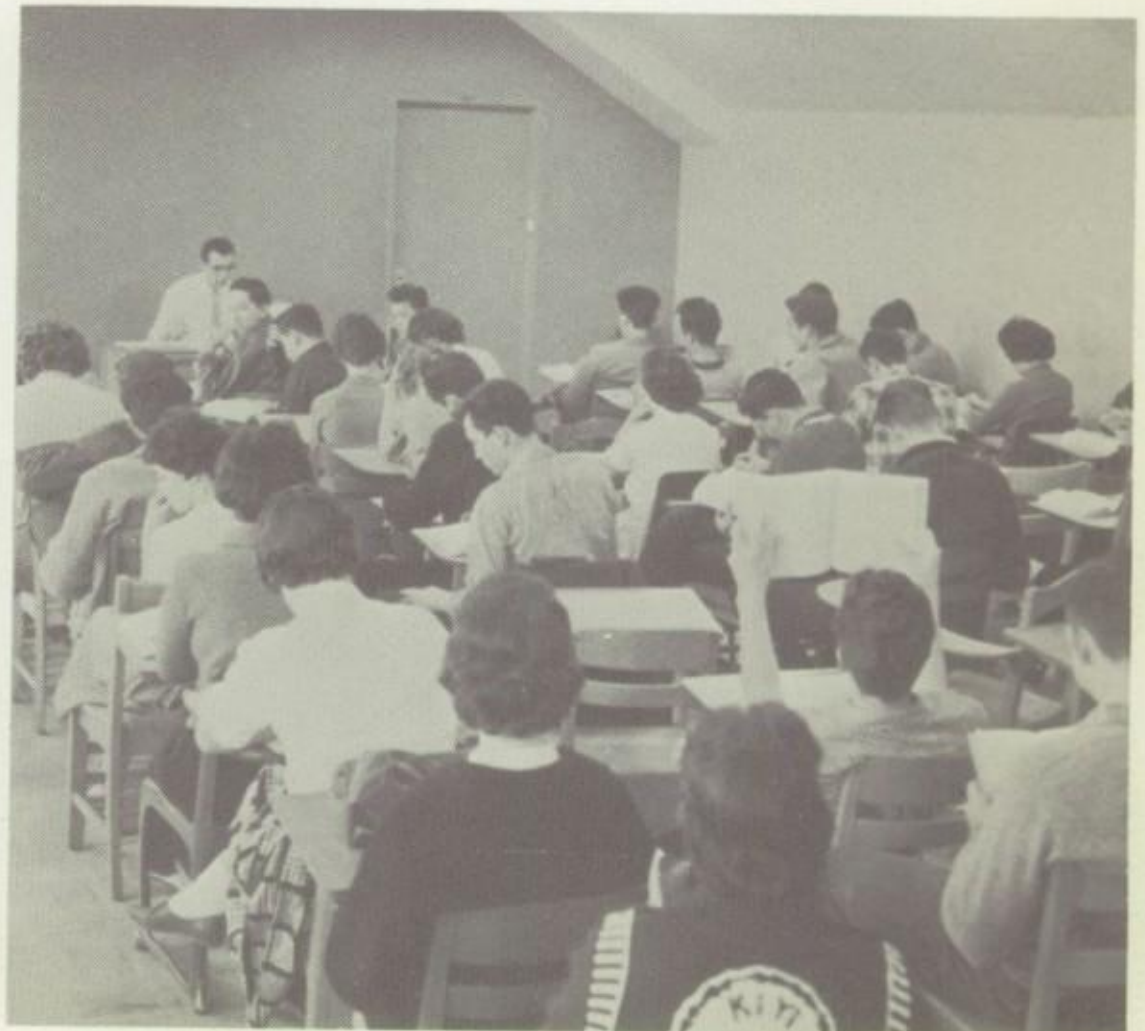

On the following eleven pages we see the story of our year in campus activities, showing how we came . . . we loved . . . and we leave CHHS.

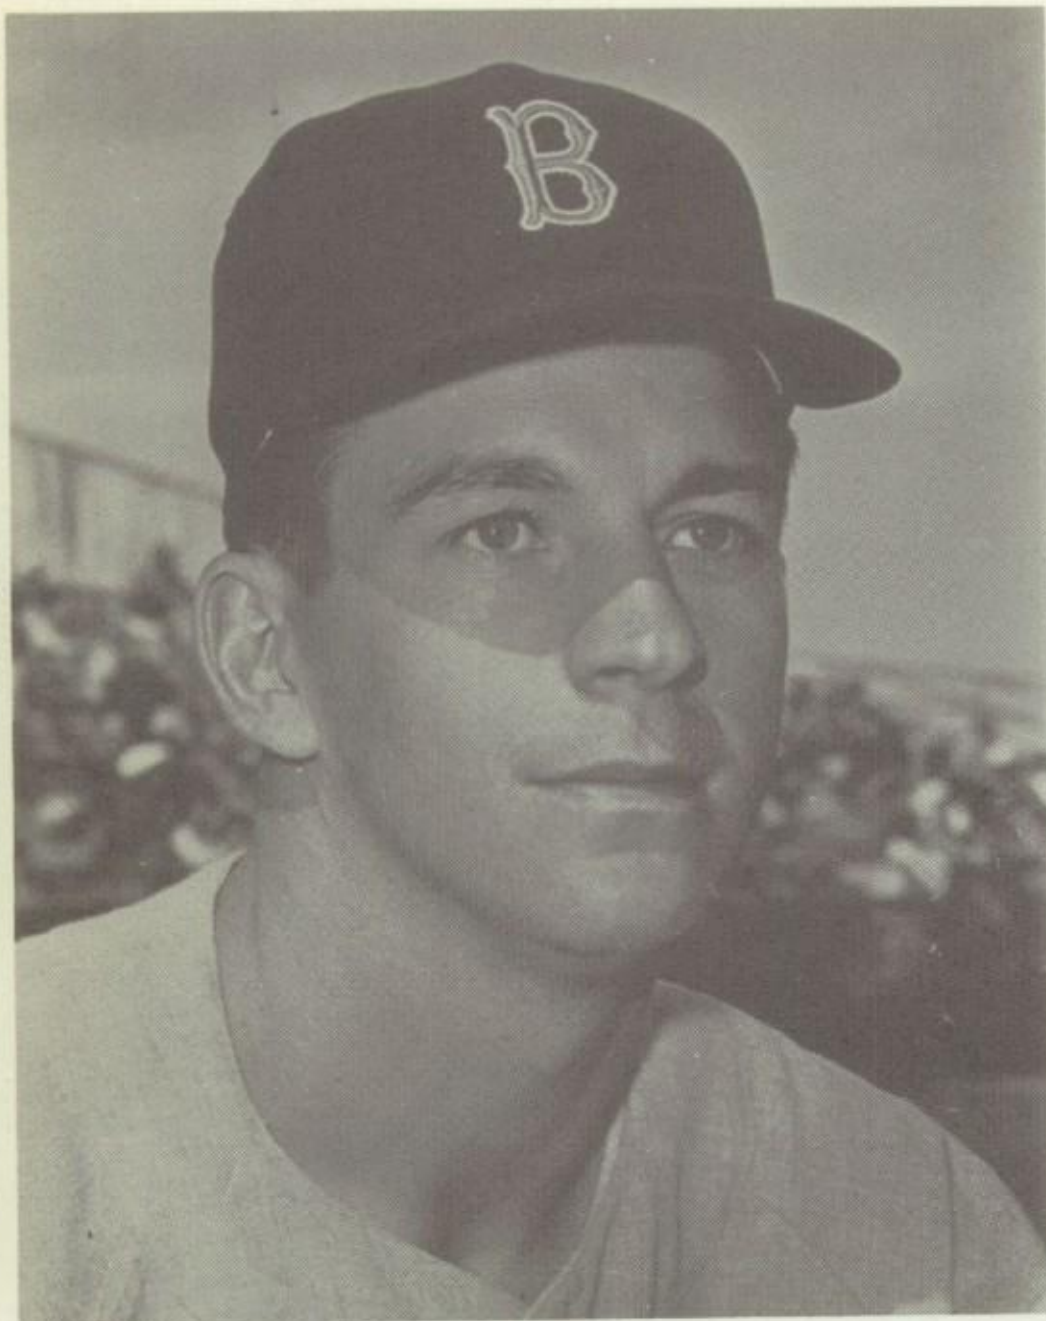

We Filled The Silence Of The Halls With Laughter

We Filled the Emptiness Of The Rooms With Life

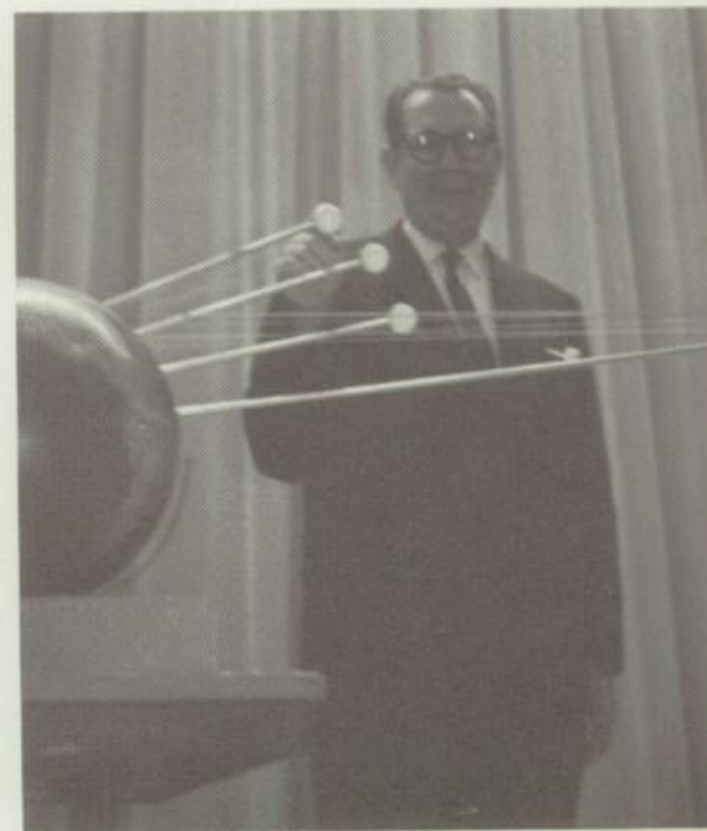

We Welcomed Our Visitors With Friendship

BASEBALL'S Rookie of the Year, Don Schwall, changed uniforms to perform student-teacher duties at the Hill.

This year we heard speeches on America's future and atomic power. We received rookie baseball players and Air Force Colonels with equal friendship.

We carried our friendliness with us as we traveled to represent CHHS in city, state, and nation-wide activities.

TELEPHONE Co. Representative, Alvin Turner, demonstrated communication equipment.

PEP ASSEMBLY for the State Football Championship found Grant and Southeast yell-leaders backing the Hill.

JERRY SANDERS, State Student Council President, spoke to us in December

JUDY MURPHY boards the greyhound bus taking her to the State Student Council Convention in Tulsa.

EXPLORATION of the Shedd Aquarium was one of the highlights of the journalism trip to Chicago.

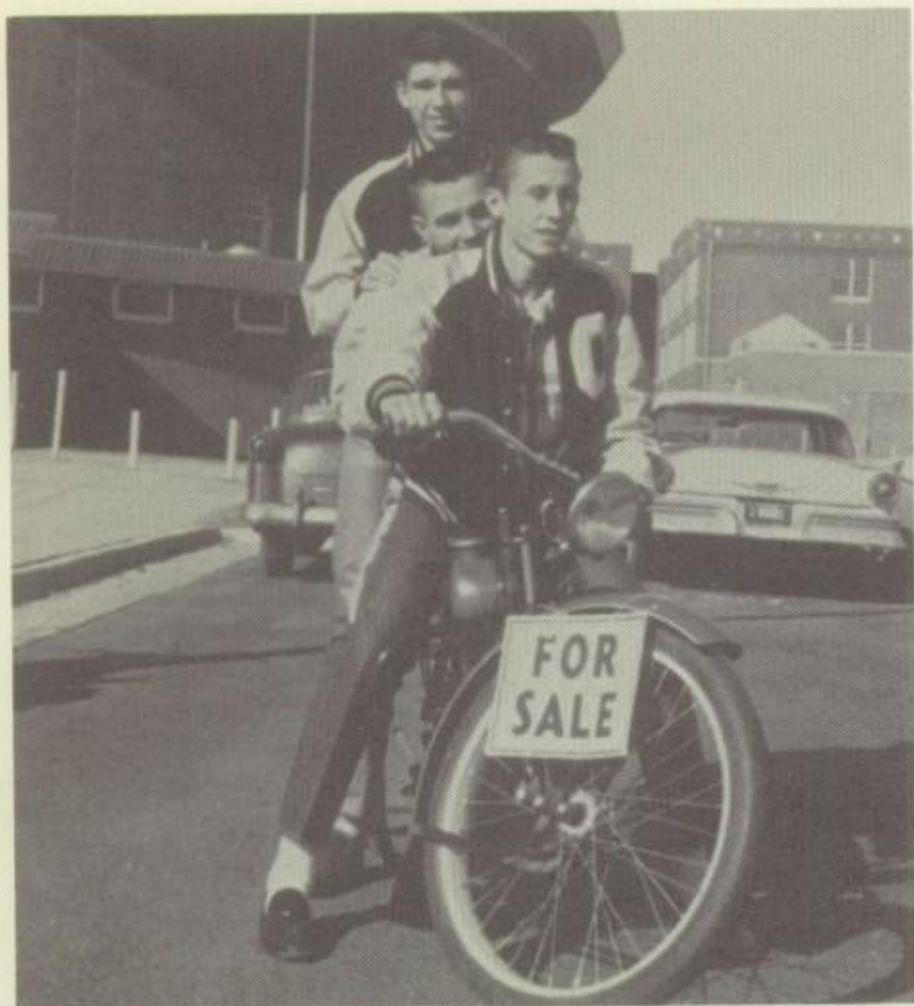

MR. EHLERS assures Mr. Bengston of his vote, as he accepts a card from the candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

We Carried The Redskin Name To Different Places

A FAMILIAR sight to Hillmen was the hurry-scurry or "first-one-on-gets-a-seat" loading of the Redskin bus by Hill athletes as they prepare to attend another athletic event.

ROY WILSON, Tommy Griffith, and George Manek confide that they're on their way to see a used car dealer.

LOYAL raccoon clad Mike Stewart asks, "Isn't anybody going to watch the guys practice?"

We Came In Our Kookie Cars and Crazy Clothes

"YOU SEE Jimmy Babe, it's like this . . ." quips 'Coach' Mike Cantley to Jim Shahan in a fun-filled assembly.

Along with another school year came the varied and crazy fads of the teenage set. As the hem lines went up, the blouse lengths came down. Cars of every shape, size, and color made the scene at the Hill. Our transportation ranged from shiny and new to kookie and old.

CONVERTIBLES are a must for fresh air enthusiasts like David Taylor and Jo Anderson.

We Poufed Our Hair and Adopted the Twist Craze

REDSKINS GOT a showing of the "poufed" hair-dos, poise and co-ordination of "visiting Northwest Classen cheerleaders," portrayed here by feminine(?) Economics clubbers during a pep assembly.

A brush, comb, and hair spray provided the set-up for the pouf hair-do's.

The top craze for the '62 season was the debut of the twist. A towel or a reducing machine and the latest record were musts for the beginner learning the new dance.

THE TWIST came on strong at the Hill as demonstrated by Judy and Lynn Albright.

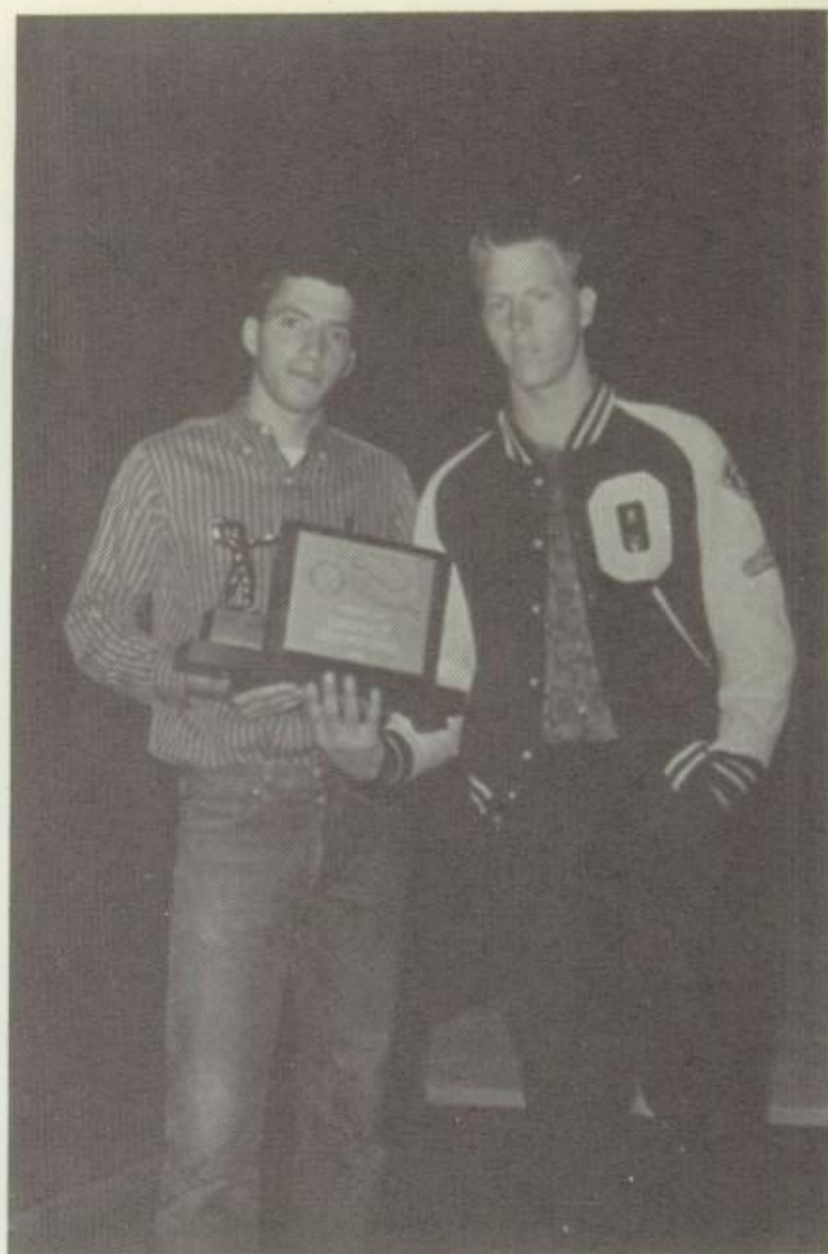

"NEXT STOP the Malt Shop," laughs Martha Walters as she learns the Twist with the aid of a reducing machine.

DON SCHOLL readily accepts his piece of 'victory cake' at the pep council-sponsored football reception.

CROWNING'S OVER—and new Ki Yi King, John Stark helps club president, Pam Williams, into her awaiting car.

PROUDLY accepting the Class AA Runners-Up trophy are co-captains Mike Speegle and Jim Whipple.

We Gained Recognition; and Glowed With Pride

FIVE ROYAL attendants surround Miss Linda Lee, who was elected from the group to reign as Princess of Print for 1962.

Capitol Hill climbed upward on the ladder of prestige this year in many ways. Besides our football honors, we landed the position of secretary-host for state student council convention.

Ralph Wiser was named to the All-State band for the second year, and Pat Wright, Jim Shahan, Tom Clark, and Eddie Knight made All-State orchestra.

Lewis Davenport scored as a semi-finalist in the National Merit Scholarship exam, and Don Wheeler and Mike Fuller received letters of commendation on their scores.

Of course each club had its own royalty, and several all-school honors were handed out. But, whatever our recognitions, we accepted them with modesty and just a touch of pride!

KIP WOODRUFF'S appearance at the slave sale caused a rash of bids . . . grossing six cents.

"NO, you big bad Shawnee Wolf, you can't have my victory basket!" cries little Redskin Riding Hood.

Life for the Hillmen Was Hectic But Always Fun

EGADS! An invasion of Mau-Maus! This was a typical reaction that the above-picture group of lovelies brought on when they staged a pep assembly appearance.

We Went In Couples, Doubles, and Sometimes Stag

SPELLBOUND by one of the latest movies, daters Harold Jones and Mary Sue Miskovsky share "munching" treats.

Keeping up with our fast-moving world was no trouble for active Redskins. Our entertainment ranged from bowling dates to long, serious talks by the fireside.

Movies for and about teenagers were a passion for all. The guys sighed over pert Debbie Walley and the gals mooned over handsome Troy Donahue.

Double-daters were often seen enjoying a pizza after games, and all-girl shopping parties were arranged for Saturday afternoons.

Couples shared the fun of being young together. No matter what the time, place, or scene, we Redskins always had a blast . . . in couples, doubles, or just plain stag!

STRIKE? Double-daters Donna Mulkey, George Spiva, Mike Carroll and Cathey Stevens hope it will be.

BIGGEST PROBLEM for Tiers Ann Gillemot, Sharon Woodruff, and Billie Wells is deciding what not to buy.

"THANK YOU", murmer Jody Smith and Ray Pickett.

"HMMMM, that looks good . . ."

"UH, would you mind?"

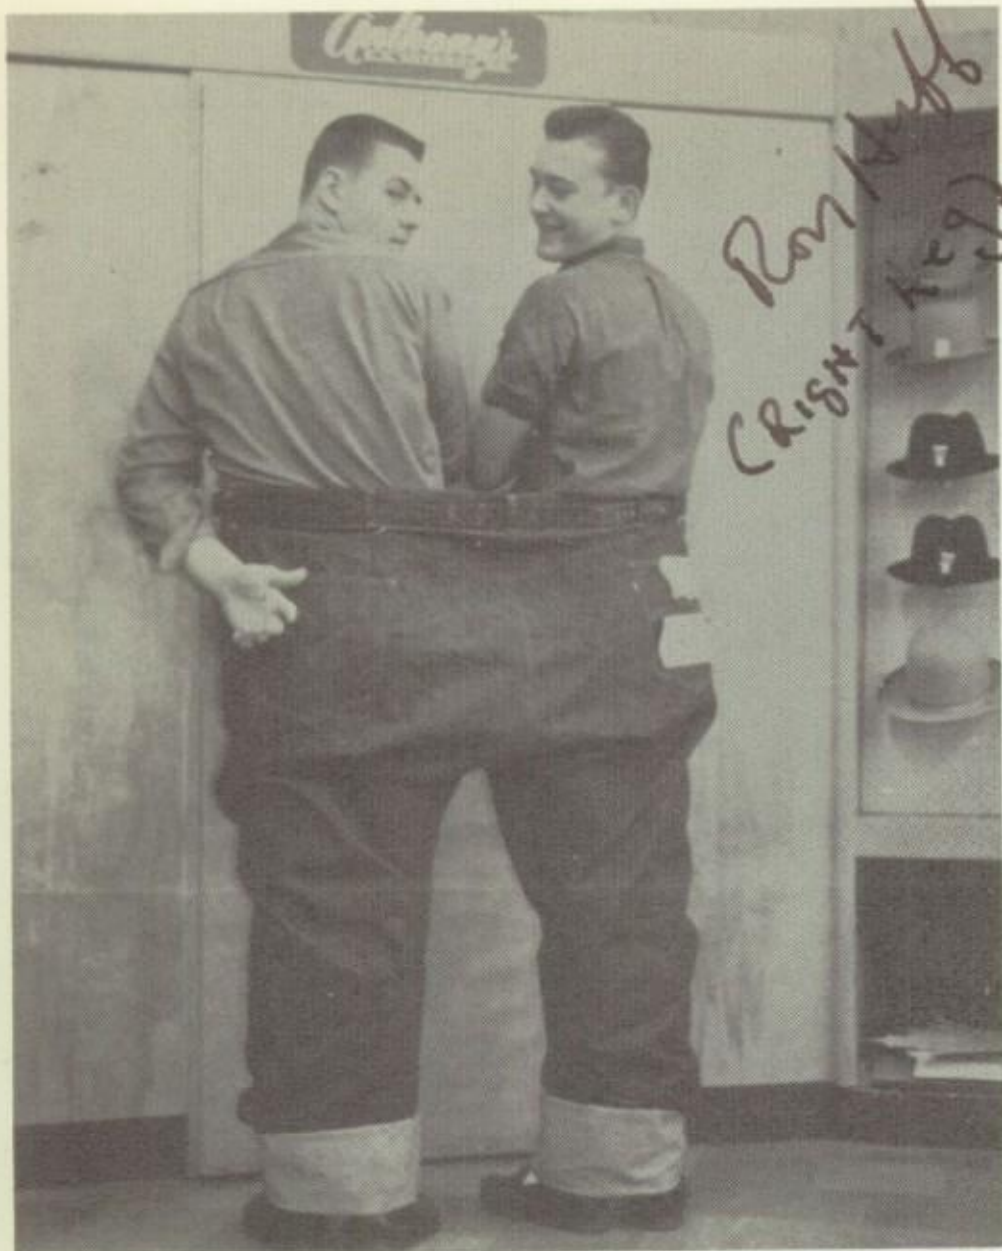

"AHHHH, wonderful!"

GANGS of all sizes gather at the nearest pizza place for an after-game serving of gab, "goo" and giggles.

CRACKLING fire and pleasant company make an evening successful for Diana Ford and Bobby Rogers.

"IT'S BIGGER than the both of us," remarks Ron Huff to James Armstrong, examining this unusual pair of Levi's.

CLOWNS, MUSIC, bubble gum, and laughs put fancy trimmings on the campaign skits.

There Were Times For Laughter . . .

OBTAINING A hair from a boy's leg helped win Linda Bennett the Ki Yi title of Best Pledge.

MR. "OZZIE" Ossenkop practices for his 'twist number' in the PTSA program.

APPRECIATION plaque from the athletes was given to resigning coach Charles Murdock.

TEARS of disappointment flowed freely after the 12-6 defeat by Norman in the State Championship game.

And Time For Tears . . .

Fun-filled days made high school an institution of friendship as well as an institution of knowledge.

Gay campaigns, pledging, and clubs activities made life at Capitol Hill great with a capital G. Shared laughter between friends became a fixed memory of the Hill's warmth.

Always ready to prove that "laughter makes the Hill go 'round," were faculty members who lent their talents to volleyball games, skits, and assemblies.

As we laughed together, we also cried at times. Sad moments such as our loss to Norman were met with courage. Happy times also brought a mist to the eyes of students as radiant queens accepted their crowns.

Graduation day arrives all too soon, and goodbyes are said to friends and to wonderful highschool days. Every 1962 graduate will leave the Hill with a smile on his lips and a tear in his eye.

"SO LONG," say Lloyd Warren and Yolanda Young, also bidding goodbye to their highschool years.

Being allowed to run for this royalty is an honor, as the requirements are higher for it than for any other title. Students must have a B average or better, hold no other royalty, be of high moral character and students in good standing.

Five Beauties Reign As All-Sports Attendants

All-Sports Queen is a relatively new royalty on the Hill, having begun in 1961. Martha Vargas, representing the football team, won the first crown.

Chosen by the entire student body in an election on February 5, this year's field of candidates ran a close race with Evelyn McCathern being victorious.

Merlene Tendall

Homecoming Queen

Homecoming Queen is a title given to both a student and an alumni queen each year when exes return to the Hill for the annual parade and game. Mrs. Inez Claymore won this year's alumni title, and the student body chose Merlene Tendall to reign as the student queen.

Attendants to Merlene were Emile Coutre, Tiers Ann Gillemot, Jennifer Birdwell, and Darlene Brown.

Subscribers to the REDSKIN ARROW, school newspaper, each year elect the only all-school royalty to be held by a junior girl. Princess of Print Linda Lee won the honor on December 20, 1961. Runners-up were Beverly Akin, Judy Ferguson, Marlene Davis, Kay Jay and Jody Smith. Linda was presented in the year-book presentation assembly in May, and received an engraved bracelet.

Student Council

Leadership and ability have contributed much to the accomplishments of the Student Council this year.

Besides improving on traditional projects, the Council introduced Quiet Week and Sportsmanship Week this year.

More school leaders were given a chance to dedicate their energies to SC when the meetings were changed from a third hour class session to 7:30 a.m., on Mondays.

T&I Queen Reaches Finals In Homecoming Race

Emile Couture, reigning queen of the Trade and Industry Club, was crowned and presented with an emblem jacket during the annual Christmas Dance. She was also among the four runners-up of the Homecoming Queen Contest.

Members, students enrolled in all types of vocational training classes, worked together and turned out a float that placed second in the originality division of the Homecoming Day Parade. The theme idea was "Memories are made of this . . ."

Their planning committee scheduled a weiner roast for October and a banquet later on in the year.

The Trade and Industry Club has long been recognized as one of the largest groups in school. This year they had enrolled 161 members.

"MY THESE hot dogs are good," agree T&I members at the annual picnic held at Rotary Park.

QUEENS FROM the 20's to the 60's are shown on the T&I float named "Memories are Made of This."

D-O Clubbers Combine Fun, Professional Training;

Diversified Occupations club is organized with an accent on opportunity for students to develop their occupational skills. Guest speakers, dances, and a banquet are included in their busy schedule. The year's highlight attraction was the formal crowning of Barbara McCurdy reigning D-O Queen.

ONE OF THE duties of Connie Sharp, doctor's assistant, is preparing syringes for shots.

FIRST PRIZE in the Homecoming parade's beauty division was captured by the D-E entry.

Perfect Performance On Parade and In Concert

Hard work and early morning hours were not spent in vain this year for the band of Capitol Hill High School, better known as "The Pride of Capitol Hill."

Excellent performances under the direction of Mr. Melvin Lee, director, and Raymond Aduddell, student director, have won rave notices from the students and faculty.

Middy Coates, who is Miss Majorette of Oklahoma, helped twirl the band to fame.

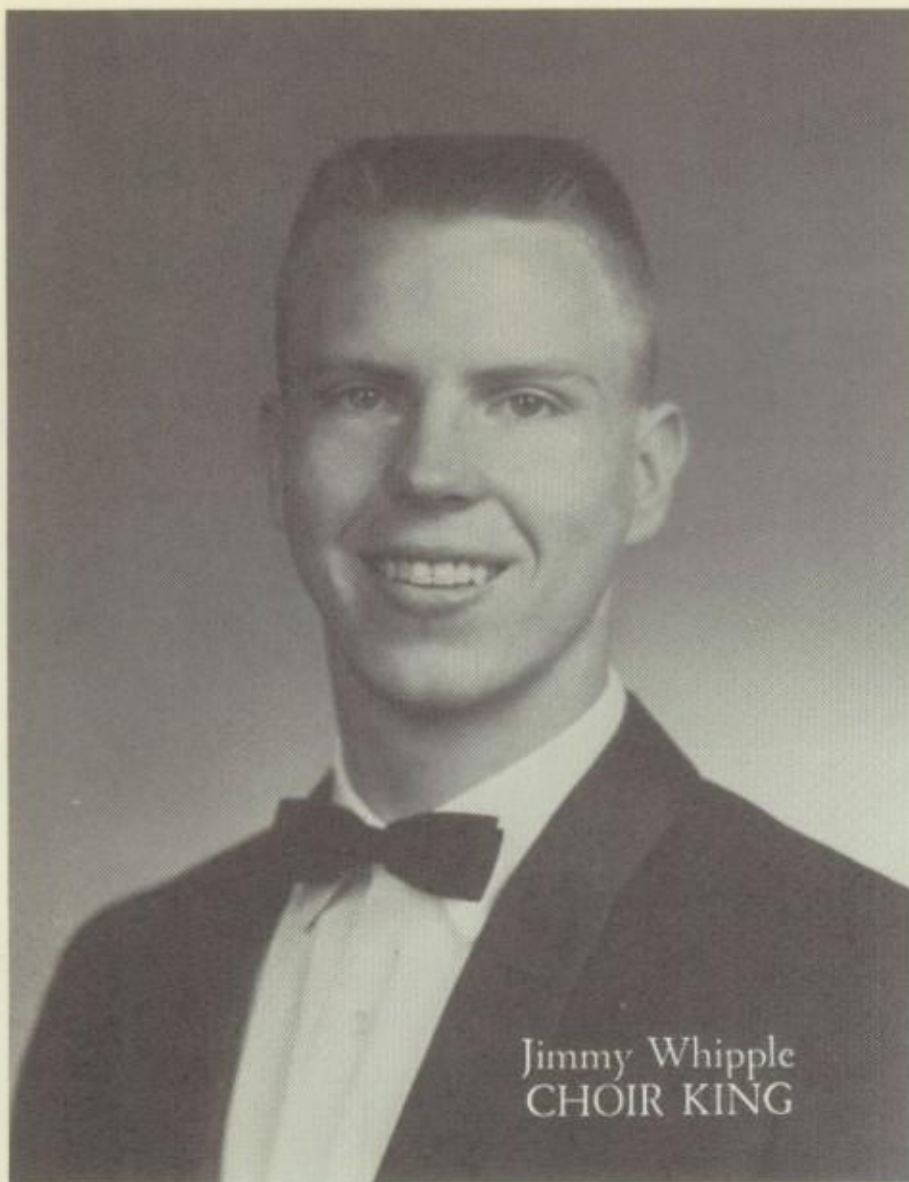

The band has generated school spirit by playing in assemblies and at football games. They also participated in statewide contests, at state colleges.

The selling of Halloween candy was the only money-making project endeavored this year.

Band queen, Judy Reed was crowned at the Capitol Hill-Shawnee game by Larry Taylor, drum major.

Singers Vocalize For Entertainment and Enjoyment

Top members of the Concert Choir attended the All-City Choral Festival held at Classen High School, February 22, 1962. Eleven highschools participated and out of the 132-voice group, 22 were from Capitol Hill. A national figure, Dr. Lara Hoggard, who was with Fred Waring's organization for ten years, directed the festival.

Along with the Choir, the Boys' and Girls' Glee Club also took part in the District Contest held at O.C.U. They had to receive superior rating at District to qualify for the State Contest at O.S.U.

Performances in assemblies and at banquets and luncheons were also a part of their busy schedule.

Pep Council, Boys' "O" Cheer Redskins To Victories

School spirit reached the maximum peak this year as the cheerleaders, Pep Council, and Boys' "O" Club backed the pep activities and sports of CHHS.

The Pep Council took its place as a leading club when it sparked Redskin spirit by sponsoring pep assemblies, pep cards, banners and bonfires.

One of the top activities of the Boys' "O" Club was helping to organize the Boys' Pep Club. The lettermen from different sports were seen at all games.

Excited and happy about the outstanding school spirit of '61-'62, the Redskin cheerleaders led the student body in cheers, cheers, cheers.

Boys Reactivate Pep Club, Boost School Spirit

Darlene Brown
BOYS' PEP CLUB SWEETHEART

Reactivating a dead pep club is no small task, but it was done this year with the help of Hill lettermen.

Filling the void left by the demise of the three previous boys' pep groups, the new group was organized on an informal basis, with no dues, and no official uniforms.

Their cheers stole the show at most pep assemblies, and influenced other males to join in the yelling, too.

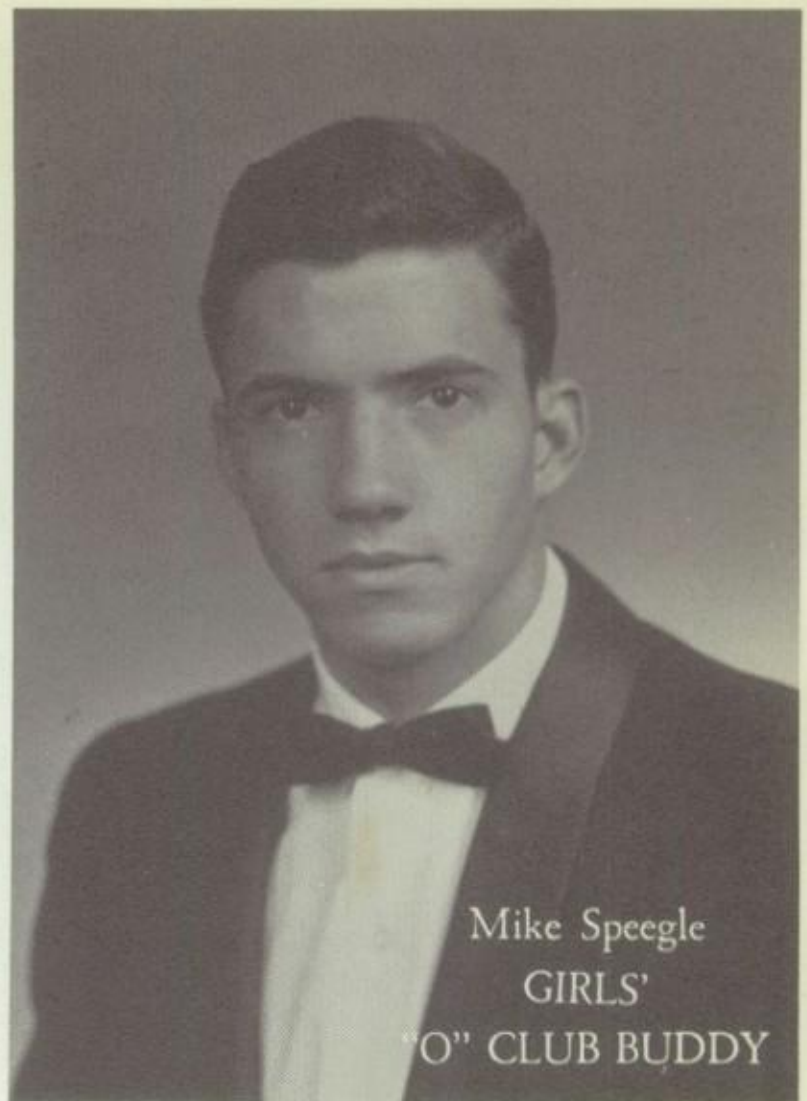

Throwing confetti became a trademark of the club, as did their favorite yell, "Rah, Rah, Ree, Kick 'em in the knee!"

French Clubbers Sponsor Peasant School In Alps

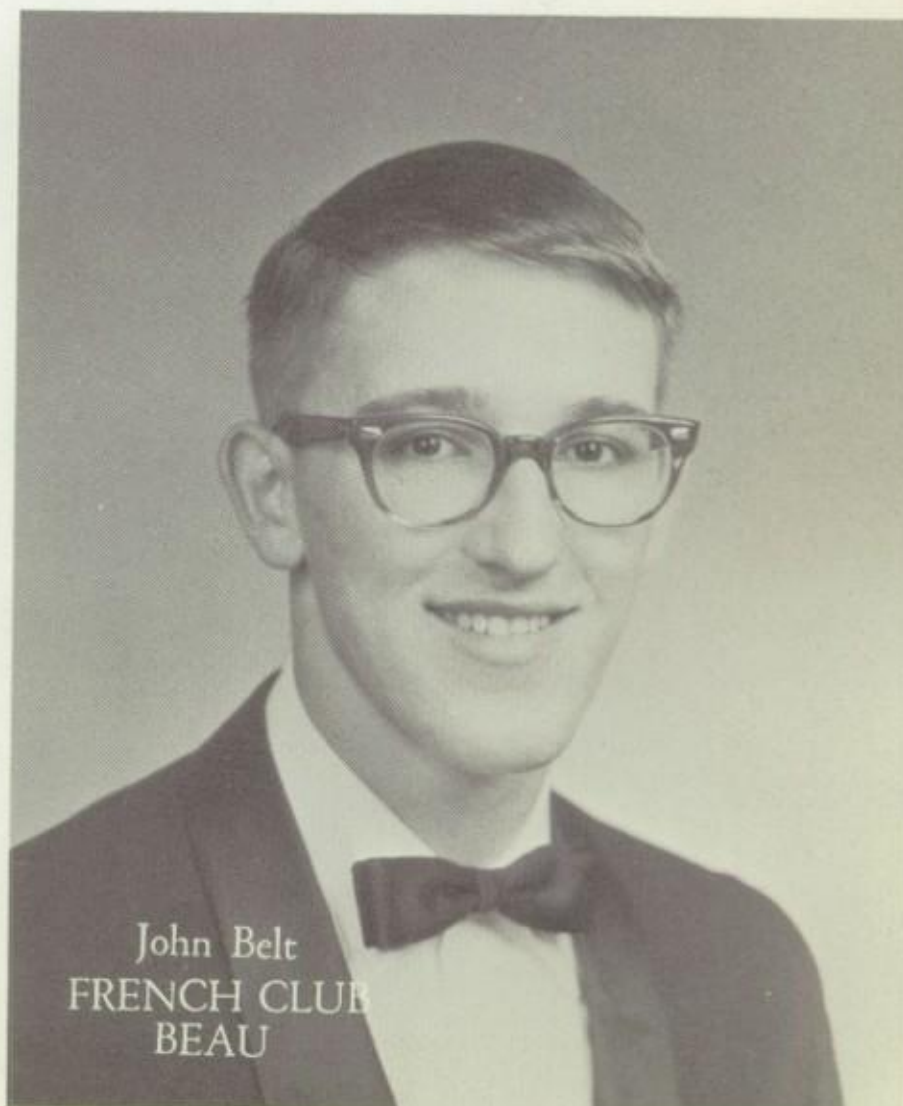

Sponsorship of a peasant school in the French Alps was the outstanding accomplishment of the French Club this year.

In order to earn money for the project, the group sold doughnuts and Redskin car bumper tags, and sponsored school-wide paper drives periodically.

Clubbers bought the first club sweaters this year, and designed an emblem to complement them. A 'Parisian Indian' holding palette and brush and wearing a beret graces the back of each white cardigan. Members built a float, also, and planned a year-end trip to Colorado.

Redskins Meet Weekly For Morning Devotionals

Barbara Reid
MORNING INSPIRATION QUEEN

Barbara

A dedicated group of young people arrives early each Friday morning for a short devotional period before classes begin for the day.

Organized in 1946 as the Bible History Club under the sponsorship of Mrs. Hettye Summers, the club changed its name to Morning Inspiration Club last year.

With an active membership of 75, the non-denominational club enjoys hymn singing and short addresses by ministers of various southside churches.

One of this year's highlights was the talk given by Youth Evangelist Johnny Bisango at one of their regular meetings.

Social function of the club was an initiation dinner at Dodson's Cafeteria, honoring their new members.

Fund-raising project was the sale of scripture text Christmas cards. Club president, Barbara Reid, was also elected queen for 1961-62.

Christian Principles, Service Are Creeds Of Club

Y-Teens, a branch of the YWCA, serve the community by working hand in hand with the YW on charity and social projects.

Managing the student bookstore also took up much of their time.

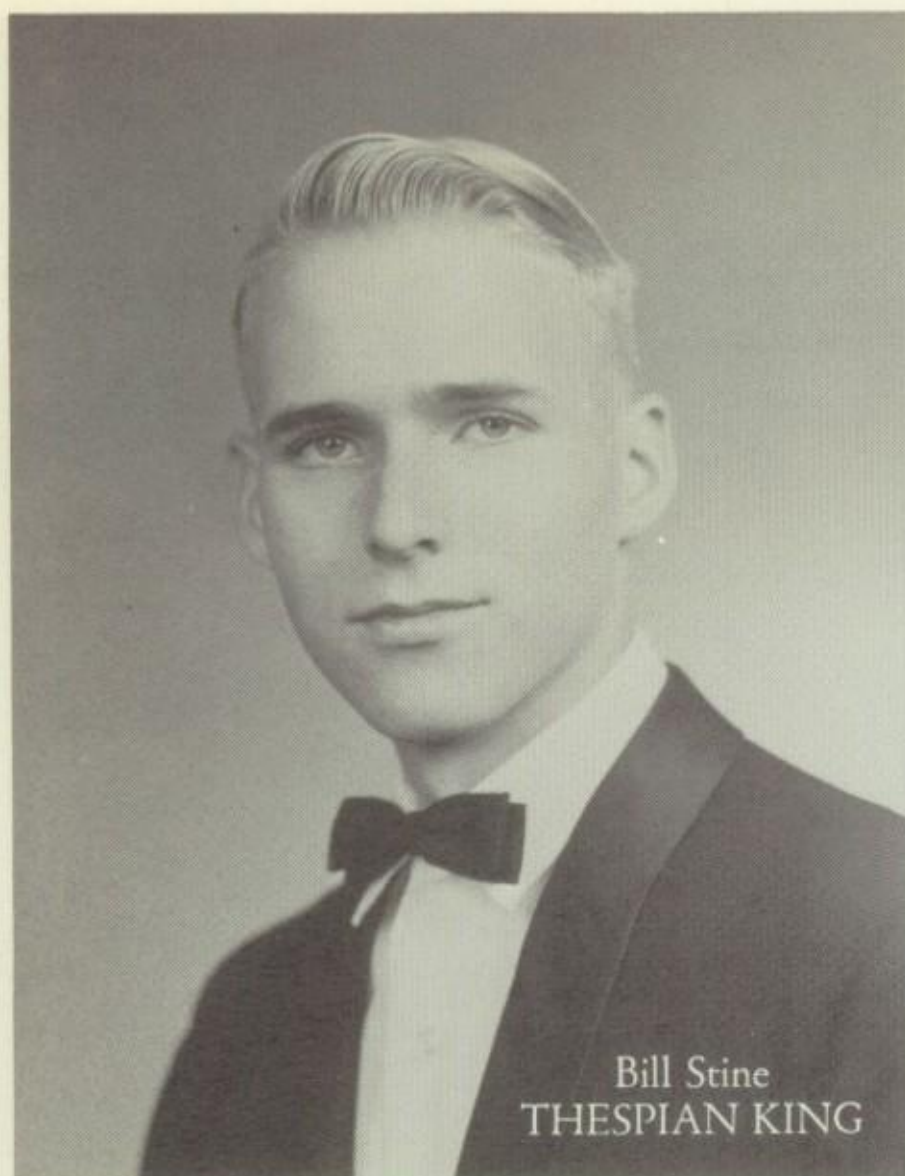

They had two formal affairs this year, one to crown the Y-Teen "Buddy," and the other to install new members and officers.

Hi-Y's were kept on the go this year by a "World Service Program." The project was a money-raising endeavor to help finance YMCA recreation centers in other countries.

In March, the boys participated in a model legislative program, known as "Youth and Government" week, taking over state governmental positions.

Thespians Stage Assemblies, Sponsor Twirp Dance

"Curtain going up . . ." This phrase is the cue for the Hills' Thespian group to take their places on stage.

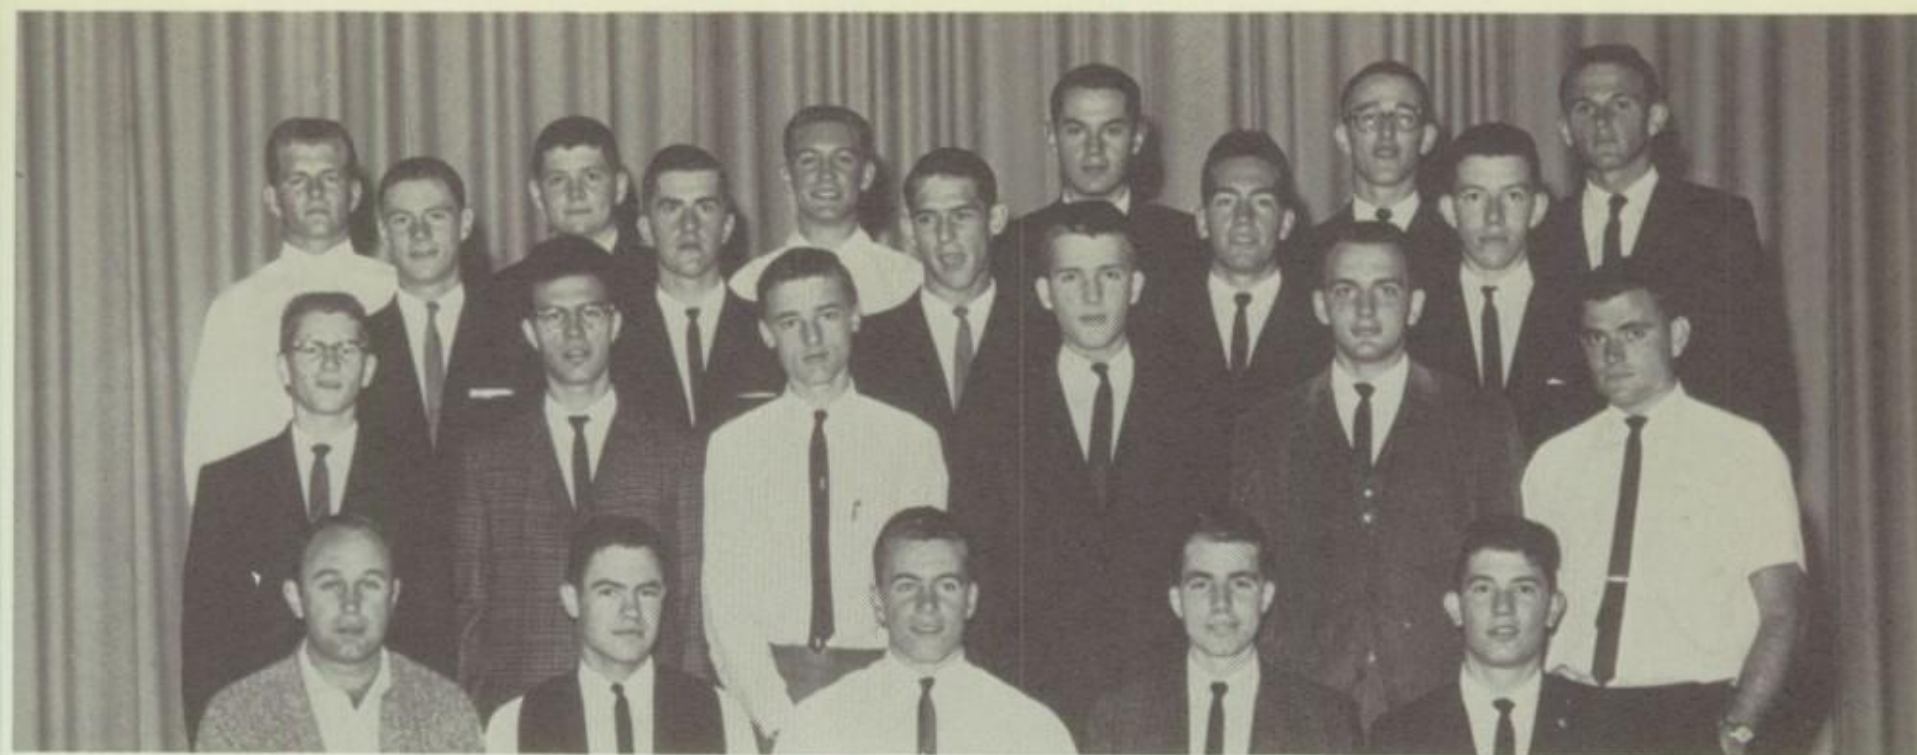

Thespians this year sponsored the Twirp Dance, a pep assembly, and Thespian Night, when they presented the play "Infanta," formally initiated new club members, and crowned Bill Stine and Diana Dillon as King and Queen.

The group also presented skits, readings, pantomimes, and one-act plays during school assemblies and at banquets.

Speakers Form NFL; Key Club Helps In Community

Sharing the honor as host to the district convention with eight other local clubs was the highlight of the year for members of the Key Club. Among the activities of the club was sponsoring the Thanksgiving basket drive and working in the school book store.

Giving debates, dramatic readings and original orations at state and invitational meets occupied most of the time of NFL members this year.

Membership is based on participation in the eight divisions of the speech field.

Ki Yi's Back Athletes; Aid Community Projects

Never a spare moment need be had by any member of the Ki Yi Pep Club. Although its main purpose is to support all athletic events, time is also found for other activities.

This year the organization was the only high school club in Oklahoma City to sell poppies for the Disabled Veterans.

To earn money they serve at banquets, usher at Municipal Auditorium, and sell programs at games.

The Spring Formal held in April highlights the year, as officers for the following year are announced and the queen crowned. A scholarship is given at the close of the year to the best Ki Yi.

Latin Pupils Mix Pleasure and Work In New Club

History was made this year as first and second year Latin students organized the school's first Latin Club. Purpose of the new club was to stimulate more interest in the Latin language and customs.

Making the first year a very active one, the clubbers planned and participated in a Latin Dinner, Latin Day and Latin Week.

Members wore appropriate costumes and consumed Roman food at the Ides of March dinner which was highlighted by a satirical program.

Latin Week was a real test of the clubbers' skill in using the language. During this time meetings were conducted entirely in Latin.

Hillmen Plan For Tomorrow In Math, Science Club

Mu Alpha Theta, the Honor Math Club, was first organized in 1947 by a solid geometry class. It boasts of one of the first charters given by the national organization.

An initiation banquet each spring is the big social event of the year for this group. An expert on mathematics is the speaker for this annual occasion.

Participating in the construction of a cloud chamber, a solar telescope, and an anti-smog muffler were the activities of this year's chapter of the Sigma Chi Iota.

Field trips and attendance at the Science Fair plus various social gatherings were added to the outside-of-school activities for this active clan.

Dewey Decimals, Art Club Share Showcase Duties

Making Christmas wreaths was one of the worth-while activities of the Capitol Hill Art Club.

Art clubbers were in charge of planning and arranging display cases for the halls. Members must have a B+ average and display artistic interests and talent.

Every March a meeting is held for Oklahoma State Library Aides. Last March Redskin sophomore Judy Hall was elected state president.

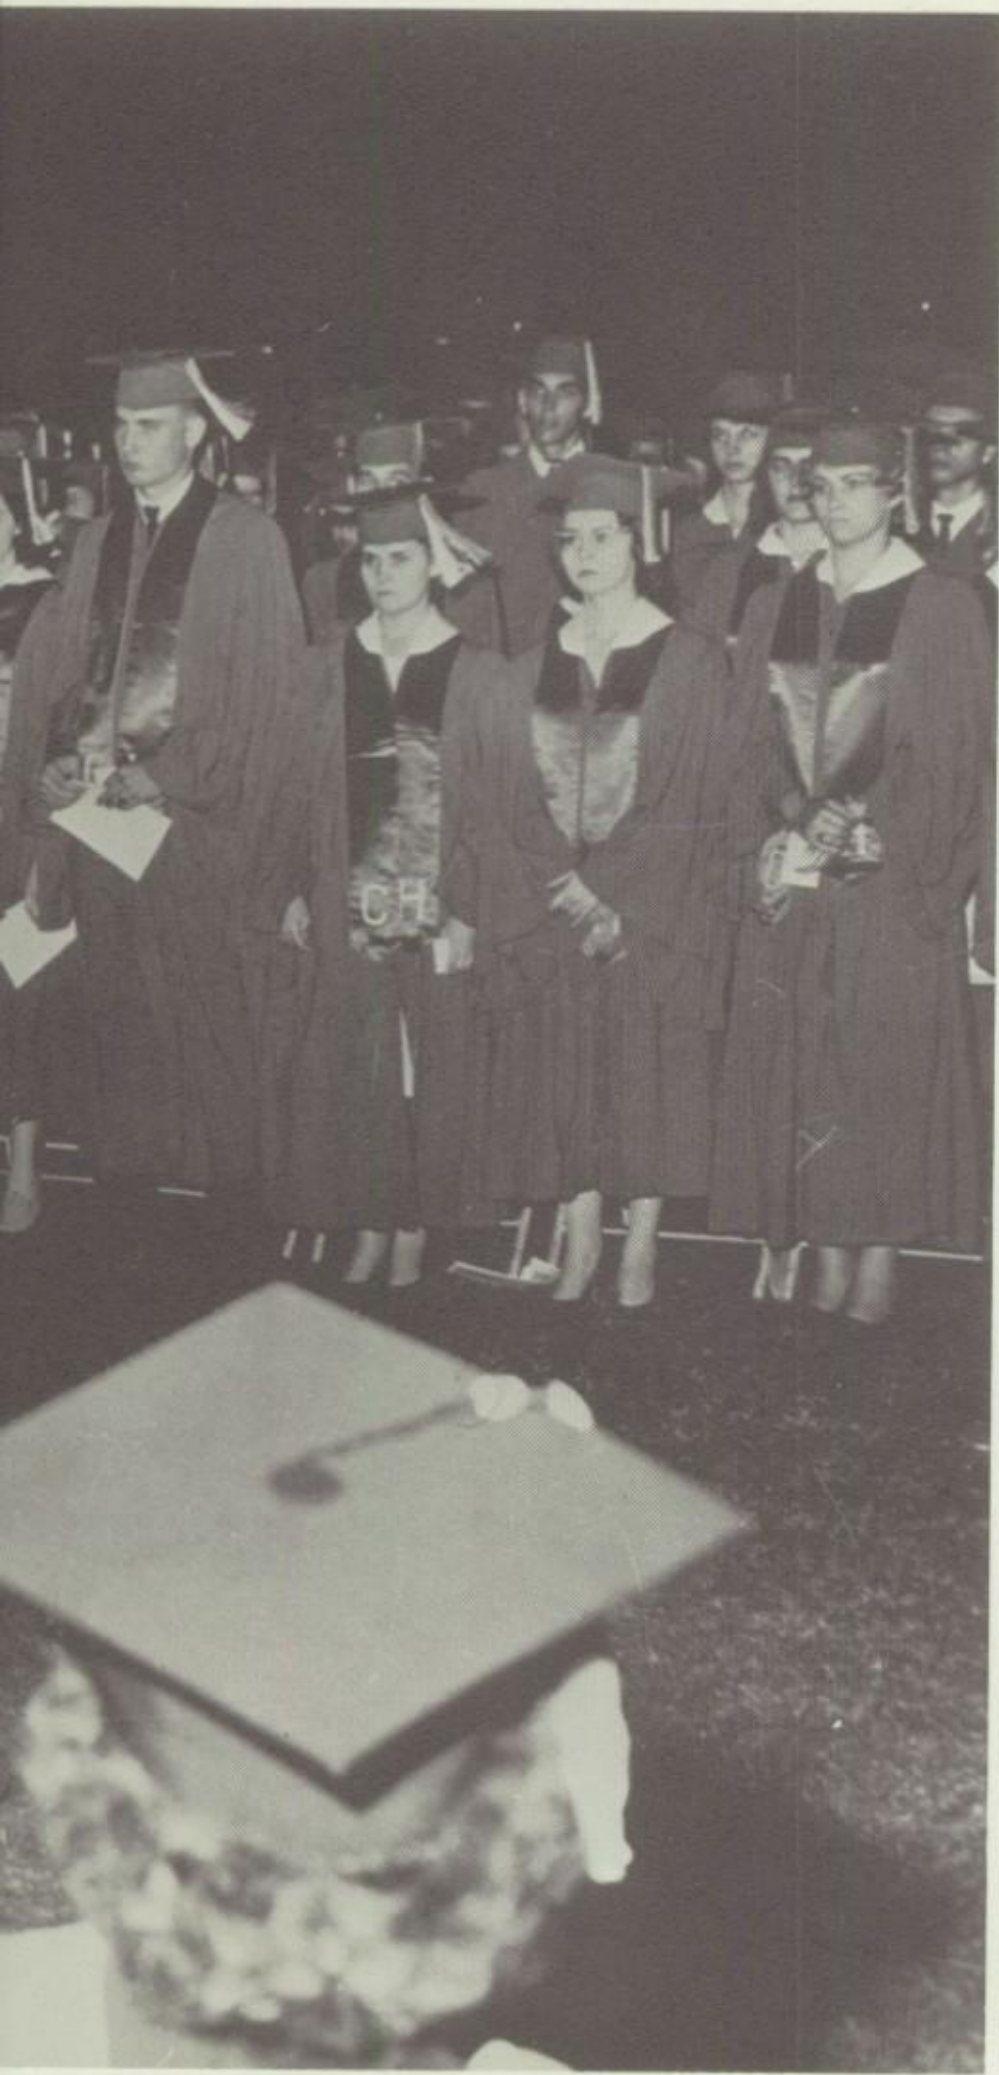

To stimulate interest in books, librarianship, and new trends in the library field is the chief goal for the Dewey Decimals.

To Graduate

HAVING A SENIOR PICTURE taken is a big project, so senior president Jim Shahan gets a helping hand from Kathy Henry, secretary, and Larry Mullins, vice president.

Class Of '62

Seniors, at last! Eleven years of schooling have gone into making that phrase a reality for the class of '62!

And the senior year has been the best of all. This year we have seen skirts get shorter, hair-dos get poufier, and the dances more strenuous.

Our taste in music revolved around the latest dance craze, the Twist. Favorite records were the "Peppermint Twist," "Let's Twist Again," and even the "Mother Goose Twist."

On the more sedate side, we listened to the first organ music to peal from the new auditorium organ. And we saw the inauguration of quiet week for exams.

In the national scene this was the year of the astronaut; the Berlin Crisis; President Kennedy's first year in office; and Mrs. Kennedy again topped the "Best Dressed List."

We chose the theme Wonderful Memories for our graduation activities . . . the prom, the breakfast, baccalaureate, and finally commencement. To steal a line from Bob Hope's theme song, we say, "Goodbye, CHHS, and thanks for the memories!"

Mermaids Present Swim Show, Enter Contests

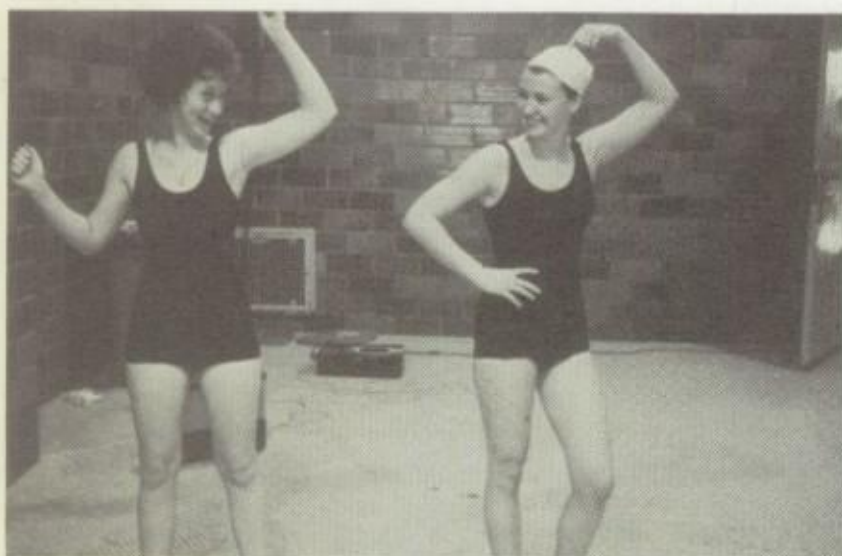

"PRACTICE MAKES perfect swim formations," say Judy Woods, Sandra Verrier, Nadine Woods, and Jane White.

A bat, a volleyball, a basketball, a badminton birdie and a ping pong paddle in addition to a lot of sore muscles were used in the seasonal sports of the girls' teams class.

Girls were competitive with other city high schools while earnestly trying to earn a letter for their athletic achievements.

The organization of a new swimming club, "The Mermaids," different state and local swim meets and the annual water show served to take up most of the swimmers' time.

Senior soloists Jane White and Sandy Verrier both received top ratings for their performances at state contests.

Golfers, Cross Country Team Place In Mid-State

PROPER GRIP on the club is very important, as demonstrated here by Coach C. B. Speegle.

John Ray and A. B. Vaut, three year lettermen, were the only boys to return for the 61-62 golf season. Ray placed as Runner-up in Mid-State, while the golf team claimed second in Mid-State and eighth in State.

Winding up the season, the Capitol Hill cross-country team came in fourth in the Mid-State Conference meet. Individual honors for the Redskin team were captured by junior Richard Cable and senior Robert Fairbanks.

Skins Win Mid-State Title, Are Second In State

Pulling up from the bottom of the football polls, the Capitol Hill Redskin squad regained the nearly-lost gridiron reputation this year by grabbing the title of State AA Runners-Up.

State hopes fell with a crashing blow for the Redskins Thanksgiving night, as football power Norman pushed past, 12-6.

Season record stood at an 8-3 mark for Capitol Hill. One not-soon-to-be-forgotten game was the clash on Enid soil. This 34-8 win clipped the Mid-State crown for CH, although predictions made us the underdogs.

Half-hidden at the start of the '62 season, Redskin determination won individual acclaim for six gridders.

Jimmy Whipple, defensive end, notched spots on three polls; All-State, Mid-State, and the Daily Oklahoman's All-City.

Jim Broadhurst, center, placed on the All-Conference team and received honorable mention on All-State, as did quarterback, Jim Talkington.

Mid-State honors came to John Stark, Mike Speegle and George Spiva.

Redskin Basketball Team Chalks Up Grim Record;

RETURNING LETTERMAN Jim Talkington jumps for the basket to score for Capitol Hill.

Capitol Hill had a grim season this year, winning six of the twenty games played. Grant was defeated twice 39-37, 49-42. Southeast was downed 49-45 and 71-50. Douglass forfeited both games because of an illegal player.

Jim Talkington and George Manek have been the highest rated members of the team. Manek rated as second highest scorer in the city, with a 16.5 average per game. Although team members lacked experience, their spirit was high and the margins of defeat were small.

Displays Good Sportsmanship During Competition

Metheny's Redskins were defeated by El Reno 57-43 in the first game of the season, and later in the year with a score of 52-33. Midwest City won their first match with the Hillmen, 62-46, but the second game was closer, ending 54-45. Putnam City boasted of 48-42 and 54-45 wins; while Enid won 43-33 and 63-33.

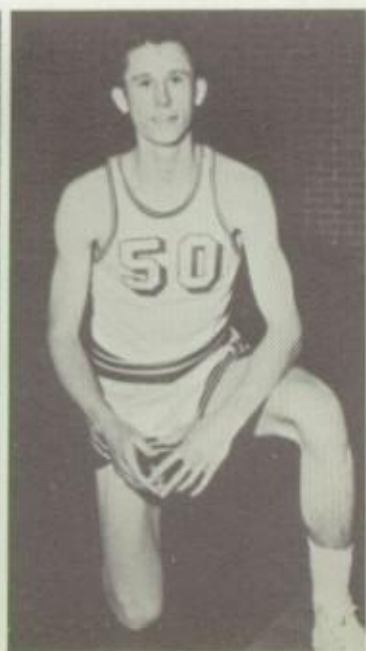

Other victors over the Redmen were Duncan, 52-46, and Chickasha, 46-39. Shawnee Wolves ripped us twice, 83-61, and 62-42; and the Northwest Knights won two clashes, 50-45 and 54-46.

Selected as the top four men on the Capitol Hill wrestling squad for '62 were Frank Lehenbauer, Paul Cleveland, John Magers and Larry Roberts. These four men were selected on the basis of their skill, individual points and sportsmanship. Heading the list was junior, Paul Cleveland, who took first place honors at the Mid-State Meet. This is his second year on the squad.

Metheny Replaces Pryor As Head Baseball Coach;

ASSUMING all baseball coaching duties, Coach Metheny is responsible for all necessary equipment.

Cheers, cries, and screams were heard over the Redskin campus as the Hill baseball season rolled around.

In the earlier days of practice, new faces appeared on the practice field. Because of the retirement of last season's coach, John Pryor basketball coach Don Metheny ably followed in the footsteps of Pryor and took over the coaching job.

Don Metheny played baseball in high school and college. He served the Hill as assistant coach last year.

"YOU'RE OUT", shouts third baseman, Roy Wilson as he tags Jim Nievar in a practice game.

DON SCHOLL, Roy Wilson, and George Manek were the only returning lettermen from the '61 Co-Champion team.

SENIOR , DONNIE Scholl eyes the ball curiously as he makes ready to catch a foul ball.

Three Lettermen Return From Co-Champion Team

Graduation took the entire line-up plus several reserves from the 1961 Mid-State Conference Co-Champions.

Returning lettermen for the '62 season are seniors, Don Scholl and Roy Wilson and junior George Manek.

Obtaining a 13-6 record was an easy chore for the '61 baseballers. Sharing the Mid-State crown with Putnam City was the team's only disappointment. One team member, catcher Jerry Morrow, received recognition for making the All-State squad.

COACH METHENY yells "Walk it!" to Mike Carroll as he hits his second ball and bases are loaded.

WARMING Up before a game is George Manek, star pitcher and the team's only junior letterman.

Swimmers Place In City Free-Style Relay Contest

A FORWARD dive is executed by Billy Neiman.

Four returning lettermen formed the nucleus of this year's swimming team. Two year lettermen were Jim Leverich, John Jeffreys, and Bill Neiman, the team's top diver.

Lone three year letterman, senior Don Worthy, lettered in the medley, backstroke, and free-style relay.

The Capitol Hill swimmers placed fifth in the city meet, after an otherwise unsuccessful season.

With 13 juniors and sophomores lettering this year, Coach John Bell has high hopes for next year's team.

The Redskins looked forward to the new season with the aid of eight returning lettermen and a new coach, Mr. Don Burget. The veterans are: David Taylor, John Stark, Robert Fairbanks, Mike Speegle, Albert Harriman, Richard Cable, Randy Statham, and Larry Lavielle.

The highlight of the Redskin season was hosting the Mid-State Track Meet.

Welcomes Players From All Schools In Oklahoma

Swinging rackets, chasing tennis balls and entering tournaments has kept the Hill tennis team busy this year. The team sponsored the Capitol Hill Invitational Tourney, April 6-7.

An outstanding record has been compiled by the girls' team, which has lost only one dual meet in four years. Luenna Land and Karla Hayes are the top two girls, and share the title of team captain. Karla also reigns as tennis princess.

EPILOGUE

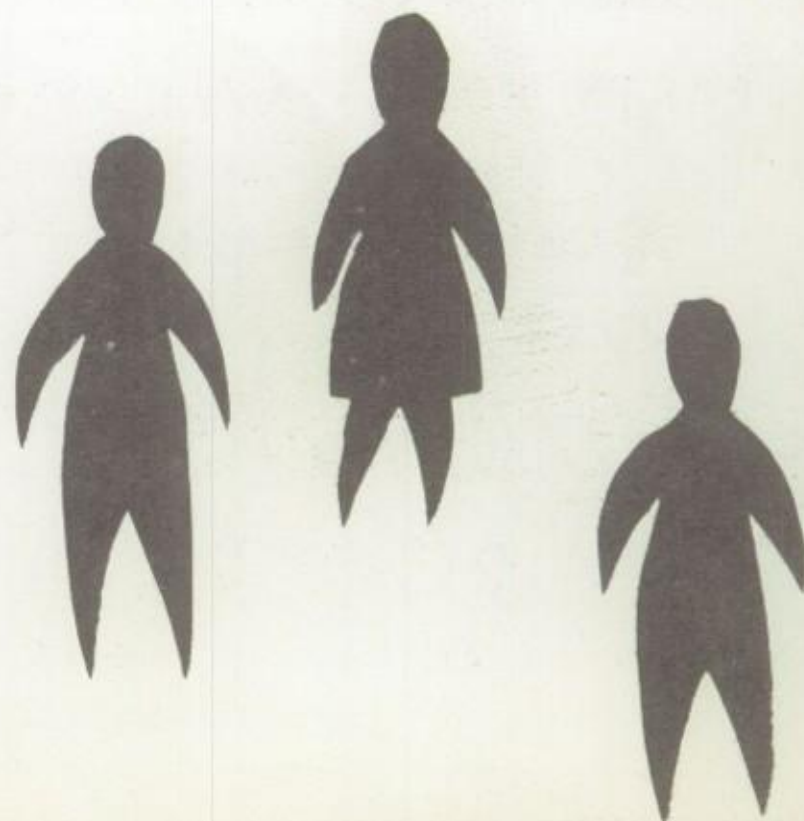

We came to C.H.H.S. in the fall of 1961, and stayed for nine months.

We searched for knowledge, joined with pride, burst with youth, cheered the teams, and grew together. Now we leave again. Some of us, through graduation, will join the ranks of the alumni. Others will return in September.

Before the Chieftain staff can go, however, we must say "Thank you" to those who have made this book possible. John Clark of American Yearbook Company helped us over many rough spots with advice and help. Faculty members were understanding and cooperative. And, our advertisers made the book financially feasible. To each of these groups goes a bouquet of thanks.

We hope you, our readers, will enjoy reviewing the golden days of 1961-62 as you scan the CHIEFTAIN'S pages.

We all came to the hill . . . and now we leave, thus starting again the yearly cycle of those who COME TO C.H.H.S.

Jerry:

I have enjoyed being in

Oh how a pleasure knowing you hope always with

Wm. D. Fisher

Dear Jerry,

I really do not know what to say that has not already been said. You are sweet and all that, so I won't say it all over again. I am really going to miss you this summer and next year. We have had a few good times in here even when we weren't on friendly terms. By the way, for all its worth, I like your hair a lot better the length it is right now. I know if you keep after thing with the "get up and go" that you have now, you are sure to make a success of anything you try. I hope things work out the way you want them to. May you have all the happiness in the universe. May we well run in to each other sometime in the future and can have some more fun talking about times we remember. God Bless you and yours always

Jerry,
I have had a wonderful time with you this year. I wish you all the luck in the

To Jerry,
I don't think I've ever met a guy quite as
"evil minded" as you,
but I guess you're a swell guy too.
I won't wish you
luck or anything, cause you usually get what you want anyway.
